

Subject: Workshop 5

3rd Trimester

Group: Mixed

Teachers: Mariana Oseguera & Bernabé Carranza

Project: Humans of Plenus

Driving Question: How can we document our evolution through storytelling, art, and technology to honor where we've been and define where we're going?

Project Overview: "Humans of Plenus"

This final project is a comprehensive, reflective capstone experience designed to celebrate your growth, identity, and journey throughout your middle school years. By modeling your work after the powerful storytelling format of Humans of New York, you will bridge your past achievements with your future aspirations.

Present & Future" (front) and "The Journey" (back).

Front: The "Humans of Plenus" & Future Self

1. The "Humans of Plenus" Portrait & Story:
 - Choose and take a picture with 3-5 people who had a powerful impact on your journey through Middle School.
 - Answer the following three questions:
 - How do we connect?
 - What do we admire about each other?
 - What is something I don't know about you?
2. Soundscape Update: Add a final audio element that captures your current Middle School emotional state.
3. Street Art Reflection: Display a photograph of your past street art, accompanied by a reflection on how that work connects to your growth and your place within the school community.
4. AI-Generated Future: Using your prompt engineering skills, you will generate an image of your "future self" and write a corresponding reflection on your goals and identity.

Back: The Legacy Collage

The back of the poster functions as a time capsule. A comprehensive visual collage featuring the various projects, milestones, and creative endeavors you have produced throughout your entire middle school experience in the English Workshop class.
