

1ST GRADE 1ST TERM TOPICS

Language Arts: The study support activities can be found in the orange notebook. The vocabulary activities focus on connecting each word with its corresponding picture to support word recognition and meaning.

Prepositions:

Using IN, ON, UNDER, and NEXT TO

IN Use IN to show something is inside a space or container. The cat is IN the box.	The fish is IN the bowl.	The balls are IN the basket.
ON Use ON to show something is touching the top surface of something else. The apple is ON the book.	The vase is ON the table.	The pencil case is ON the bag.
UNDER Use UNDER to show something is below another thing. The puppy is UNDER the chair.	The ball is UNDER the table.	The teddy bear is UNDER the bed.
NEXT TO Use NEXT TO when something is beside, at the side of, or very close to something else. The ball is next to the chair.	The plant is next to the window.	The shoes are next to the bed.

Quick Tip

- IN = Inside
- ON = On top of surface
- UNDER = Below

SOUND GUIDE FOR WRITING

FIND THE SOUND

Look at the sound • Find the word • Write it!

Small sounds...
Big words!

a SHORT A (Short sound) _a_	a_e LONG A (Long A-AI-AY-A_E) _ai_ _ay_ _a_e_	e SHORT E (Short sound) _e_ _ed_ _en_	e_e LONG E (Long E-EE-E_E) _ea_ _ee_
apple a p p l e cat c a t hat h a t Circle the short a sound!	rain r a i n play p l a y cake c a k e Circle the long a sound!	bed b e d net n e t pen p e n Circle the short e sound!	leaf l e a f tree t r e e seed s e e d Circle the long e sound!
1 Circle the short a sound in the sentence. The cat wear a hat.	2 Circle the long a sound in the sentence. The rain makes a cake.	3 Circle the short e sound in the sentence. The bed is in the net.	4 Circle the long e sound in the sentence. The leaf falls from the tree.

Games: Do not include pictures because the goal is to encourage children to listen carefully to the sounds and identify them in words, rather than relying on visual clues.
